Signs of struggling with one's academic workload may include not taking quizzes, low grades on assignments, missing assignment, and/or lack of two-way communication.

Academic Integrity: Policies and Procedures

Student Code of Conduct

The following items constitute the Student Code of Conduct Policy.

- Contribute to a positive and fun learning environment, knowing that what I share and how I participate in class affects my classmates' learning experience
- Take credit for work that is mine and mine alone.
- Use the online systems respectfully and appropriately, knowing they are shared among all my classmates.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with five fundamental values:

- Honesty
- Trust
- Fairness
- Respect
- Responsibility

A student who adheres to high standards of academic integrity maintains that all work turned in is his or her own and is based on the knowledge and skills that he or she has acquired.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Plagiarism is copying or using ideas or words from another person or source such as the Internet or a print source and passing it off as your own. When in doubt, be sure to cite your resource. If it is confirmed that a student has plagiarized work in any manner, the student will be subject to consequences determined by Edgenuity administration and may be removed from the course with a failing grade. Cheating on assessments or tests includes copying from another student or using unauthorized materials on the exam. A student found guilty of cheating on exams or term assignments is also subject to serious academic penalties.
